

THE PSALMS

Experiencing God through the songs of his people.

Set Your Heart (Psalm 101) COMMUNITY GROUP DISCUSSION GUIDE

In what is categorized as a “royal psalm” it describes the humility and integrity of a godly leader. As we hear the description, we also find a call to intentionally set our eyes, our hands, and our hearts before the Lord. When we do this, we find that our desires in life are shaped by the Lord.

CONVERSATION STARTER

What are some characteristics that can be used to describe a Godly leader? Do you have any examples of great leaders who possessed some of these characteristics?

GETTING INTO THE SCRIPTURES

Please read aloud Psalm 101.

What are some things that stuck out to you from the sermon on Sunday and in reading this passage?

Verse 5 says, “I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me”. Why is it so important to find community with other Christians?

What are some behaviors and characteristics that David uses in this Psalm to describe the wicked?

Why is it important to recognize these sinful characteristics in ourselves and others?

MAKING IT REAL

What steps can you take to lead a blameless life? What help do you need from God?
